

with this?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: There may not be an actual cost, but certainly would be an expenditure of time which may take up some time that something else didn't get done. I don't think they'd hire extra people to this, but it may take time of staff or prosecutor to determine this, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right, now if...well, I won't ask you the question because my time is running out but if the bill is returned then there will be a chance for me to turn on my light again. Madam President, how many times have I spoken on this?

PRESIDENT MOUL: This is your third time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Then the issue that I will touch on again is the fact that under this bill no notice is required to be shown to have been given to the person who is going to be charged with this crime. The person need not be shown to have received the citation. Not having received the citation, not knowing that he or she is to appear or face conviction of a misdemeanor, the person doesn't show up. Failure to show is a misdemeanor carrying a punishment of up to $500 and up to three months in jail, or both, for this one incident and if you want to put this in the bill in the form that it's in, that's all right. I'm not going to try to amend the bill. I'm just getting some things into the record.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Question. Is that correct?

PRESIDENT MOUL: Okay, are there sufficient seconds? There are. We'll now vote on the motion to cease debate. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting on a motion to cease debate. Have you all voted? Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? We have a request...Senator Witek, we are on Final Reading, technically, so the senators should all be present and we can have the senators check in if you prefer. Would the senators please check in. We are under call. Would the senators please check in. Senator Ashford, Senator Avery, Senator Baack, please check in. Senator Bernard-Stevens, Senator Beutler, Senator Byars, please check in. Senator Kristensen, Senator Lindsay, Senator Lynch, please check in. Senator McKenzie, Senator Pirsch, Senator Schimek, please check
